

UB's Campus Thund er Again Wows Audiences With 'The Madam President'

COLLEGE MUSICAL closes tomorrow night after a successful three-night run in the Klein auditorium. Show this year concerns what happens when an ex-Hollywood "dahling" inherits a prep school. Checking their makeup, left, prior to opening performance, are Barbara Wax, as Valerie Palmer, the title role; Marian Szekeras as Dorcas Dooley and Carole Breen, a girl of the company. A scene in Putney Prep is enacted by Barbara Wax with Ed Morrison as faculty member and Kenneth Broad as Walter Ruscavage. Doris Carroll won applause for her singing of ballads in the show. All 19 musical numbers were the result of collaboration of two UB students, William Pura and Edward Marfiak. "Dancing Girls from Nepal" consisted of 12 UB students with choreography by Judy Blair, of Blair studios.
