Inspection Of UB Was Routine Procedure

Two weeks ago the University of Bridgeport was visited by an inspection team from the Connecticut Council on Higher Education. There were 13 members on this team led by Dr. Hughs from Trinity College and Dr. Robinson from the Connecticut State Department of Education.

This inspection was a routine procedure of the Conn. Council on Higher Education in conjunction with the State Board of Education which authorizes such inspections of all colleges in Conn. established after 1945. The colleges submit voluntarily to these inspections which are held three times in 12 years. The first one for UB was in 1948, this being the second.

The final one is due in 1958 or 1959, and will consist of two teams. One from the Conn. State Board of Education and the other from the New England Association of Colleges. The primary concern of this team was to look into the structure of the University and make recommendations which they as experts, feel will assist the administration to achieve the stated educational objectives of the University more directly.

In addition to the classrooms which were visited, department heads were interviewed and curricula discussed. The facilities on campus were looked into, the financial position and administrative procedures and also the library.

Last but not least, the committee also met with the student body. Both formally with student leaders and informally with students on campus. What questions were asked and how they were (continued on page 4)

C.I.S.L. Members Return To City

Sixteen members of the Political Relations Forum returned to Bridgeport after a two-day session with the Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature in Hartford with a practical working knowledge of Connecticut governmental procedure.

The students acting in the capacity of real senators and representatives took part in the usual politicking and filibustering that accompanies a regular state session.

Representing the University at the eighth annual legislature were Peter Baldino, Fred Fiorello, Les Sutton, Leonard Cocco, Rosemarie Verrilli, Saul Goldwasser, Nick Panuzio, Howard Broder, Joe Berardino, and Richard Ellis.

Also Edward Ramos, Edward Denike, David Barr, Robert D'Andrea, Stewart Christiano and Willard Carter.

The Governor of Connecticut, Abraham Ribicoff, addressed the legislature Friday morning after the elections of the House Speaker, Majority and Minority leaders

Bridgeport submitted two bills to the session, but before the bills could be brought before the House or the Senate, the time had elapsed.

DAVID BARR, Vice President of Student Council was appointed to serve on the Advisory Board of the SCRIBE.

Grad Students On Field Trip

Ten students studying at the Graduate School of Education at Teachers College, Columbia University, visited the University yesterday as part of their field trip inspection tour.

UB was described to these educators by a Columbia University official as "one of the most dynamic examples of an urban university in the country".

Members of the group included deans and university professors, a member of the New York City Board of Education, and several graduate nurses in the field of Nursing Education. One of the nurses is a native of the Gold Coast of Africa, where she recently set up a school of nursing.

Applications for Selective Service Exams must be filed by March 7, 1955, in the office of Student Personnel.

Spring Play Opening Wednesday Evening

Tickets for the Spring Play, "The Importance of Being Earnest", went on sale this morning at the Little Theater, and may be obtained from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. each week day.

Sports Contest Won By Deep

Dave Deep, who is running into a streak of luck, is the winner of the Second Annual SCRIBE-Merchants and Students basketball contest. Fifteen of his eighteen selections were correct. Deep was the only entrant out of 200 who picked 15 games right.

This is the second win within weeks for Deep. He previously won a $25 award from a Boston Newspaper, which published his social security number.

As the winner of the contest, Deep will receive a five dollar gift certificate from the Park Pharmacy, a free grease job for his "flivver" from Flannagan's garage, and two free tickets to the Warner-Merritt Theatre.

In a close race for a winning position, Stu Christiano nosed out Johnny Esposito for second place. Both lads picked 14 correct games and both came within seven points of one and eight points of another game. However, Christiano was only nine points off the actual AIC score, while Esposito was 10 markers away from the Stonehill fray.

Christiano will eat at the Seawall to the tune of $5 (for free) and will receive two comp tickets to the Warner-Merritt theatres. Esposito will also eat $5 worth of meals at the "Wall", also on the house.

The first female to win a prize in the two-year history of the contest, Mary Healy, will be the guest of Mrs. Martin at the Alum- (continued on page 3)

Oscar Wilde's play, which takes place in England during 1895, has its share of first-nighters, who include Henry Southwick as "John Worthing"; Sandra Miller as "Gwendoline Fairfax"; Madolyn Pugh as "Cecily Cardew"; Deborah Pensak as "Lady Bracknell"; and Jennie Fogel as "Miss Prism".

"The Importance of Being Earnest" was considered to be the best comedy of its type in the English language by the late James Agate, dramatic critic of the London Sunday Times.

Agate said of this play that it was "wittier than Shakespeare, more elegant than Sheridan, and vastly more amusing than Wycherley or Congrieve".

The play will run from March 9 through March 12, the curtain going up at 8:30 P. M.

Eastern Orthodox Club To Hold Tea Sunday

The Eastern Orthodox Club will hold a get-acquainted informal tea this Sunday at 2 P. M., at the faculty lounge of Bishop Hall. Some 30 invitations have been sent out and any member of the Orthodox faith who does not belong to the club is invited.

The purpose of the club is to grant recognition to the Orthodox faith in University life and to foster a deeper understanding of the faith and thus contributing to the appreciation of other religions. Plans for the future include visits to various Orthodox churches in the Bridgeport area.

Student Council Publishes Minutes

So that the entire Student Body will have an opportunity to know what is going on at Student Council meetings, the SCRIBE is publishing the entire minutes of meetings:

FEB. 15, 1955

Meeting was called to order at 10:20 A. M. President Bob Vossler presided. Absent were: Sutton, Salone, Goldwasser, Wright and Nodland.

The minutes of the last meeting were accepted as corrected. The chair introduced June Bartram, second alternate of the Freshman Class, and installed her into Council.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Vossler requested that all standing committees submit progress reports next Tuesday to enable him to work more closely with members and to see what progress has been made.

APPOINTMENTS:

The following people either volunteered or were appointed to serve on the respective committees with no objection from Council:

- SCRIBE Advisory Board - Dave Barr.
- Student Spirit Committee - Phil Seidenberg and Roberta Aronson.
- Campus Chest Committee - Marv Gelfand (Chairman), Larry Miller and Roberta Aronson.
- Jacoby Lecture Committee - James Martin (Chairman), June Bartram, Marianne Lacy, Bob Vossler and Phil Seidenberg.

VACANCIES AND CLASS MEETINGS:

The Senior Class lacks four representatives. A discussion as to how they should be elected followed. The best suggestion being that they be elected at the Senior Class meeting. It was suggested that the officers of all classes make tentative plans for class meetings.

Vossler will announce at the next meeting when these meetings will take place. These meetings will be held in place of the regular Council meeting. Mr. De Siero suggested that all notes written in the future to President Halsey and Dr. Littlefield be cleared by him or Mr. Sherman.

ALMA MATER:

A note was received from Dr. Littlefield concerning the records of the Alma Mater which were made previously and are on sale at the Bookstore. Sam Goldberg will answer Dr. Littlefield and report to Council about the matter.

JACOBY LECTURE:

The chair requested that everyone submit two questions concerning Brotherhood Week. These are to be placed in the Student Council mail box not later than Thursday morning.

RECOGNITION PINS:

Gelfand was informed that the new members of Council have not received their pins. He is to check with Barr.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION INSPECTION:

The SCRIBE is omitting this section as it merely gave the times that the team was to be on campus. The meeting was adjourned at 11:25 A. M.

Lights Please!

For several years, University students, who cross Park Avenue at the corner of Park Place, have been darting between on-coming cars, buses and trucks with reckless abandon.

The vehicles traveling down Park Avenue are not crawling. They are traveling at a fairly rapid pace, for they have gathered momentum since Railroad Avenue's traffic light on the north and Seaside Park on the south.

It isn't the student's fault if he darts across the street. He has a class to get to on the other side of campus. If he were to wait until the "coast is clear", he could wait quite some time at certain rush hours.

We're not suggesting a safe-walking or safe-driving campaign. We're asking the City of Bridgeport and the University to cooperate and erect a traffic light at the corner of Park Avenue and Park Place. This light should be the type that has a "walk" signal which can be operated by pedestrians from any of the four corners.

Many other lights have been erected by the Police Department around Bridgeport where the need is not as great as it is at this location.

There are more people crossing the street at this location than there are at the intersections of Park Avenue and State Street, or Park Avenue and South Avenue, to take just two near-by points.

As far as actual motor vehicle traffic at this point, there is as much traffic from University students, faculty, area plants and cars traveling to Seaside Park as there is on many of the main thoroughfares in the city.

NON COMPOS MENDES

By Bob Mendes

Leave us embark on an adventure into the field of music (?). Naturally, we're "ranking something", but with all due respects to the American youth, we don't see how it's possible that people will see fit to invest five cents in a neon, plastic and glass monster called a juke box, (the passing American scene) to hear a song called "Darlin". This song we feel is the epitome of nothingness.

We learned that Darling is spelled D-A-R-L-I-N. This enlightening bit of information is disclosed no less than three times during the course of the record.

This non-musical bit of idiosyncrasy is composed on the same pattern as is the old standby of Mother's Day, "Mother".

"D" stands for something; "A" stands for something else; "R" stands for still another something. . . This brings us to the halfway mark. "L" stands for something, but at this point the plot thickens. "I" and "N" combine to spell "in".

This is a very subtle move, this teaming up of "I" and "N" to spell "in". This bit of chicanery is brought into play by very cleverly working into the palaver the fact that "In means that you are in my heart forever", or words to that effect.

We didn't feel it important enough to go out and buy the sheet music to memorize the words. This garbage is also repeated in the record no less than three times.

May we humbly suggest another gimmick by way of which to maintain the favor of the public and keep this haunting melody in the ear of the public? . . . Perhaps if the lyrics were chanted a bit to read thusly: "D" as in Darlin; "A" as in Arlin; "R" as in Rlin (?); "L" as in Lin. . . AD extinction.

This may work, and then again, it may not. We are inclined to believe that with the current trend of popular music on its degrading downhill slant that nothing will help it!

Hobby's Lobby

By Wes Hobby

I was talking the other day to a piano player-disc jockey of Bridgeport, who was extremely interested in UB and its musical setup. In the course of discussing our band, orchestra and vocal groups, he asked me if we had a school march. I told him of our good old "Be You For UB", but said that other than that, I knew of none. He is now tentatively planning to compose a march for the Purple and White and if he gets it on paper, we may be able to run some sort of a contest to get a name for the new Bridgeport song in the not too distant future.

Cleo To Write Us

Incidentally, I talked to Dave Lustig, local rep for Columbia pictures; and he told me that a copy of The SCRIBE was on its way to Cleo Moore. He thought she would be interested in the write up we gave her. A letter to The SCRIBE should be forthcoming from Cleo very soon.

"Crazy Otto" has done so well in this country that Jan August is now putting out discs for Mercury with the same style of tiny piano playing. He calls himself "Crazy Julius, Crazy Otto's cousin". While he plays some fine piano, we feel the imitation is never as good as the original and we'll give our vote to schrage Otto.

Pipe Those Pipes

I had the pleasure of attending a Bagpipe Concert and dance at the Brass Recreation Center. I don't know about you, but, man, do I dig those pipes. The Bridgeport Pipe Band, host at the affair, appeared in its newly acquired coats, Clan Cambell kilts, and all the trimmings. The band is really going places and if you like pipers bands, you must hear these fellows before you leave the city.

This week we received two more discs in the "off-the-beaten path" department. Buddy Hackett, who broke us all up with his "Chinese Waiter", has come out with a new one called "Chinese Laundry" which is good for chuckles. It's backed by another monologue called "Pennsylvania 6-5000".

'Davy' Going Strong

Dark horse of the week is the skyrocketing "Ballad of Davy Crockett". This song has been recorded by every boy from Bu. Ives to Walter Schuman. . . even Steve Allen. How far will it go, time alone will tell, but for the present, at least, it is making many pesos for the boys who wrote it. It's the title song from a Walt Disney flick of the same name.

Speaking of Disney, don't miss "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea". I have heard nothing but good reports on it and am planning to see it as soon as possible. They say it's terrific.

Virtually thousands of fans will be swarming into Lenny's Wagon Wheel, Friday night, to hear the new repertoire of UB's "amazing Mr. B", who will sing at Sigma Phi Alpha's "Cotton Ball Caper". The "Prez" will be backed up by a large chorus of his talented fraternity brothers. So be sure to get your tickets early.

Limpin' Jack Barrett is still complaining about the loss of his fur lined "long Johns", which were taken from him by a UB student nurse at Bridgeport Hospital. Jack wrenched his leg badly in a skiing accident, and had it put into a cast at the local honeyard.

UBeauty, Sheila Haffner, received the promises and a ring from former UB court-king, Dick La-Bash. Sheila is the Vice-Prexy of her sorority, TE, and Secretary of IFC. Dick will soon be going on active duty with the local Guard unit as a Second Lieutenant.

NaVet Bob Whalen courted and won the heart of Donna Risley, UConn co-ed. They announced their "ringagement" last weekend. Final plans for wedding bells are yet to be made.

Rosemarie Mehm gracefully received the congratulatory kisses of both President Halsey and her date, Andy Olayos, when she was crowned Sweetheart Queen of 1955 at the Ritz Ballroom last Friday night.

Football Varsityman Dick Cipriani is joining his room-mates Daved Deep and Bob Mendes in the "Romantic Bliss Dept." by "going-steady" with Ingrid Ross. Bob just joined these ranks by pinning Sue Napelbaum of Linden Hall. Congrats to all. Dave has been going steady for six years, and with the same girl.

Fashion Merchandising "Fashion Show" will be held on March 10 at Seaside Hall from 1 P. M. to 3 P. M. Spring fashions will be the main feature. Cyma Altman, Greta Savitt and Helen Misley are chairmen of the Vogue Affair.

A thousand orchids to Grace Martin, Snack Bar Dietician and Manager, for her terrific cooperation and support of UB sporting events. Here is a gal that puts in more hours on the job than any other worker on campus. Her valuable assistance to fraternal and other extra-curricular organizations has helped make campus life more pleasant. Thanks to you from all of us, Mrs. M.

All but a few pages of "The Wistarian" have been turned in to the printer, and the yearbook's staff guarantees that copies will be available during the first part of May.

Knights Lose Two Games In Row End Season With 8-14 Record Skiers Skid To Vermont; Bromley Breaks Barrett

The University of Bridgeport lost its final two games of the season to New Britain State Teachers 68-65 and Fairfield University 76-52. The New Britain game was a heart-breaker to lose because the final few minutes of play definitely decided the outcome.

At New Britain, the Knights played an uphill fight all the way until they brought the score to 57 all. The two teams traded basket for basket until the score was tied at 65 all.

With less than a minute to play, Stan Ashe dropped a beautiful hook-shot and Dasney scored one on a foul with just seconds remaining to wind up the game at 68-65 for New Britain.

High man in the game was New Britain's speedy guard, Jimmy Gallagher with a total of 28, 9 field goals and 10 fouls. Runners-up for New Britain were Johnny Dennis with 17 and Ashe netted 11 points.

As usual, Jimmy Davins led UB's scoring with 23. He received much help from Amaral who gained 14 and Liggins who dropped nine.

In the prelim, the Knight's junior edition beat New Britain Jayvees 72-68. O'Donnell sank 19 which greatly aided the cause.

Saturday at the Brass Recreation Center, a capacity crowd of 1700 watched the Fairfield University Stags bowl over the Purple Knights to the tune of 76-52.

For the first 13 minutes, it was anybody's ball game. Then the Stags went on a 12 point scoring spree and from then on, the closest UB came was in the beginning of the second half when the scoreboard read 34-27.

That was the final game for both clubs and the Stags ended up with an impressive 12-7 and UB with 8-14.

Four men from each team were winding up their college basketball careers in this game. From Fairfield they were: O'Connell, Roche, Gerwin and Lalowisc and for the Knights: Stan Silverberg, Ernie Amaral, Jack Liggins and Bill Madden, who suffered a fractured arm in practice Friday and was unable to play.

Eddie Dislowski was high scorer getting 21 points, closely followed by Fred Lane with 17 and Jackie O'Connell with 14. For Bridgeport, Stan Silverberg tallied 15, 11 of which were in the second half.

In the second half, UB started off with an 11 point, 32-21 deficit and in the first few minutes narrowed it down to 7 points, 34-27.

For Fairfield, Roche grabbed 17 rebounds and greatly aided by Dislowski and Gerwin, took the edge on rebounds by a 52-41 count.

The UB Frosh won its 11th start in 13 attempts by whipping the Fairfield Frosh 59-32.

From all accounts of this year's freshman team the prospects for next year's varsity look very promising.

A recent trip was enjoyed immensely by the members of the University's Ski Club. The early birds, leaving at 4 A. M. from Marina Hall, drove, in two cars, to Manchester, Vermont, where the slopes of Bromley proved to be very interesting experiences for more than one of the members of the club.

Mr. James Fenner and Miss Cecilia Tierney accompanied the group and had a very enjoyable time. Slopes were named Little Bromley, Lord's Prayer and Push-over. The latter was not as easy as its name implies.

Skiing has its challenges and its accomplishments, as Jack Barrett will be glad to explain sometime. It seems as though Jack wanted to have his picture taken by the camera enthusiasts that went along to learn how to ski. While coming down the Lord's Prayer, he tried to do a somersault the hard way... over the front of his skis. It would have been much easier to let his feet and skis know about this before the attempt was made. The result, in full was one Mr. Barrett and one new cast for his left leg. All concerned are glad to see that Hopalong Barrett is no longer bothered by the plaster of Paris apparel due to the aid of a hack saw.

All ski enthusiasts are urged to join the group and enjoy either one-day jaunts or full weekends, learning new tricks or fundamentals of skiing. Anyone interested will be welcomed. Just ask one of the members for information on the next trip. There are no dues or obligations connected to the club, before or after any trip.

Those active members who may be contacted are: Jack Barrett, Bill Bartlett, Jean Hurley, Miss Tierney, Mr. Fenner, Leo Muldoon, Evelyn Kovacs and June Bartram.

Sigma Phi Alpha's Cottonball Caper will be M. C.'d by Bill Bevacqua and Al Cohan a la Martin and Lewis. The program is on the variety kick and is in the SPA tradition. SPA's Queen was chosen from a field of seven cuties. This is one queen whose name hasn't leaked out.

Kappa Beta Rho had what seemed to be a mysterious party over the weekend. . . they even had to use a pass signal for the members. The words were, "Smile when you say that, podner".

Still can't figure out what Dick Piroh puts in those cocktails he serves at Alpha Delta Omega parties. . . what's the difference. With Joe Brennan as pledge master, ADO will open its pledge season with a beer party at the Disabled Veteran's Hall this Saturday.

After a great Sweetheart Weekend, Sigma Lambda Chi is not even thinking about relaxing because pledge masters Gigi Shapiro and Fred Fiorello are planning to start the pledge class on their tasks.

That starry-eyed look in Theta Epsilon's veep, Sheila Haffner, is because she got her diamond from Dick Labash. . . Dick, a SPA alumnus, starred on the UB basketball team a couple of years back. The second open pledge party, a coke caper, will be at Alumni Lounge, Sunday from 3 to 5. Bit of the week — Sue Bruno is taking orders for TE beer mugs. . . well I never.

Conservative Alpha Gamma Phi will begin its pledging next week. The AGP pledges, as usual, will be set apart only by their white cards. Coach Al Sency was seen at the party Friday removing drinks from the hands of his undefeated basketballers. . . the "Hammer" rules with an iron hand!

Theta Sigma's final acceptance pledge party is slated for tonight at the Lighthouse. Bib Symonds snapped the whip as pledge master.

DEB had another successful party at the Turf Club both before and after the Sweetheart Dance. Big plans are being made for our annual St. Patrick's Day Dance. When and where will be announced soon. The dance committee consists of Charles Yung, Chairman; Ed Brown, Ed Cebry and Randy Linthurst.

Fashions For Easter Parade

When you walk in the Easter Parade of your home town, you'll be enjoying the envy of all who see you, with your new and glossy patent leather accessories as featured by Howland's.

These lovely accessories are wonderful finishing touches to Milady's new Spring suits, dresses and separates. To accompany your lovely Easter Chapeau we have black patent leather handbags and their companion patent pumps.

Your choice of styles in the patent handbags are numerous: pouch, clutch, tote, vanity, satchel and the vagabond. Many have their own leather linings, while others feature matched or novelty fabric linings.

A style like the clutch handbag can be quite versatile as it can be used for both daytime and evening wear.

To match this are the companion pumps, light and comfortable, polished to a gleaming highlight. In this department the latest is an open shoe with the new slim back strap that can't slip or slide. The sizes range from 4-9, with widths of AAA to C.

The prices of the handbags range from $5 to $7.95, plus tax, the shoes are $8.98 and both may be purchased at Howland's Street Floor.

IN THE DARK about which cigarette to smoke? Take a hint from the Droodle above, titled: Two searchlight crews, one asleep, one enjoying better-tasting Luckies. Your search is over when you light up a Lucky. You'll find out why college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands, as shown by the latest, greatest college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.

"ITS TOASTED" to taste better!

answered can best be told by those students who were interviewed. It may be assumed however, that one or two obvious inadequacies were mentioned.

In line with this it may do well to remind the student body that a report of this type becomes a factor in the reputation of any school. Another factor of a school's reputation is the students who are attending. Your conduct and achievements while in school and after graduation contributes greatly to the future reputation of our University, here in Bridgeport and in the Educational and Professional worlds. It is to our our advantage as future graduates to have been associated with a school which enjoys a good reputation both locally and nationally. Only we, who are here now, can do this.
