News & Events for March 15-31, 2018

Transfer Tuesday

Tuesday, March 20, 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Students planning to transfer to UB are invited to a session that will maximize the transfer experience. Beginning on the 6th floor of Wahlstrom Library, activities will include an application workshop, on-the-spot transfer credit evaluations, and campus tours. Students should bring unofficial transcripts from each institution attended and proof of high school graduation. For more information and to register: http://www.bridgeport.edu/event/transfer-tuesday/?instance_id=2437.

Necessary Voices Lecture

Thursday, March 22, 4:30 – 5:30 p.m.

Necessary Voices will present “Dear Reader: Connecting Audiences with Books That They’ll Love.” Speaker Sarah Begley, books editor for Time magazine, will discuss books and the art of sharing them through reviews—how she chooses books for her audience, and how she frames her articles to try to pair the right books with the right readers. This event will take place in Mandeville Hall, room 107.

Accepted Students’ Day

Saturday, March 24, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Come to campus and experience what it’s like to be a UB student! This event will take place in the Wheeler Recreation Center, with activities ranging from a continental breakfast reception, student clubs and organizations fair, classroom “test drive,” lunch with students and faculty, and financial aid assistance. UB ACHIEVEMENTS & HONORS

Resource for Undergraduate Faculty & Student Researchers

Undergraduate faculty and students involved in research are invited to explore the Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR) – an online community of 10,000 colleagues from over 650 U.S. colleges & universities.

Take advantage of UB's enhanced member subscription to CUR and enjoy access to special publications, webinars, toolkits, conference discounts, travel awards, mentorship and in-person and online/list-serv networking opportunities. Further, UB faculty benefit with access to teaching awards and bibliographies on integrating research into the curriculum.

UB students also benefit with research grants or collaborations, graduate school resources, and unlimited eligibility for Posters on the Hill, a competitive event held annually on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.

As an enhanced CUR member, UB faculty, staff, and students can sign up for free individual membership. Go to cur.org and follow these steps:

1. Click on the green "Membership" tab next to "About CUR"
2. Click on "Become a Member" and select "Individual Membership"
3. Fill out the identifying information. When you select the University of Bridgeport as your school, a note will appear that says UB is an Enhanced member and to confirm by pressing OK
4. Continue to complete the form

FACULTY & STAFF BUSINESS

Philip Maymin, associate professor of analytics and finance, was named one of the Top 50 Leaders in Data and Analytics by Corinium Global Intelligence. Their first compilation of 50 leaders in data and analytics across the USA and Canada aims to showcase the movers and shakers in the industry who are driving innovation and commerciality for data and analytics in these two countries.

NATUROPATHIC MEDICINE

Dr. Eugene Zampieron, senior lecturer, has been contacted by the CT Botanical Society, who will be including the 13-year-old Sabal Palmetto specimen Dr. Zampieron planted on the south side of Eleanor N. Dana Hall, into an official state database of Connecticut's Notable Trees Project. Dr. Glen Dryer and Mr. Frank Caputa of the Connecticut Botanical Society will soon visit the UB campus to view the palm.

Did we miss something? UB Highlights is published twice monthly during the academic year and monthly in January, June, and July to inform the University community about UB events and achievements. To comment or to list your event or award, e-mail Debra Kirouac at UBHighlights@bridgeport.edu.
